Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends,

Saint Pope John Paul had as his motto, “Be not afraid”. He was quoting our Lord, and we will hear the same words in today’s Gospel that Jesus mandates to his apostles. “Do not be afraid.” Since God knows how many hairs are on our head, and is aware when even a little sparrow dies, then He’s aware of every detail of our lives. Although he is aware, and cares, he does not guarantee us that bad things will not happen to us. Good things and bad things come with the ups and downs that are part of our existence, and they even happened to God’s holy prophets, saints, and Jesus himself. Because God is aware and cares, he tells us not to fear, for he is in control and will make everything turn out right for those who are faithful to him. There was an article with the title, “Watch out! Sin lurks around us!” Let us know God’s care for us far surpasses any concern God has for other forms of nature. “Do not be afraid!” Furthermore, St. John tells us, “Perfect love casts out fear.”

Our new summer program for our PREP/CCD is underway with a large number of children participating in the program. They seem to be having a great time. We thank our catechists, Mrs. Karen Pezza, Sister Sonia IHM, and Mrs. Ronnie Walker who are doing a great job. I must say the children seem to enjoy themselves even during summer vacation. They seem eager to know more about Jesus and his Church.

Hoping this time of the year will give you the opportunity to get some rest and vacation time to enjoy yourselves.

This coming week, I will be on Retreat at a Trappist Monastery for four days of prayer and silence. I will remember you in my prayers, and please keep me in yours..

Thank you for your continued prayers and financial support of our parish. God bless you!

Your brother in Christ,

Father Mooney

Holy Hour

Friday, July 7th, 2023 at 7:00 pm
Please come and join us for holy hour in Spanish. Topic will be Saint Martha.

Sunday Mass Readings
The thinking behind the Lectionary

Readings for June 25th, 2023

Reading 1: Jeremiah 20: 10-13

The prophet expresses a confidence in the Lord, who will protect and defend him from his persecutors.

Reading II: Romans 5:12-15

We are saved by God's grace operative within us, overflowing and capable of embracing many people.

The Gospel: Matthew 10: 26-33

There are two kinds of fear: the appropriate and the inappropriate. We followers of Christ should only have one, as He spells it out: "Those who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna."

Celtic Day

Come and join us today, for Celtic Day sponsored by the Celtic Heritage Foundation held at the Bristol Riverfront Park and Wharf area from 12 noon to 6:00 pm.
